The Spring/Summer 2011 collection by Burak Uyan is characterized by a play on lines, rhythmic repetitions and twists, which will be presented by the designer and Srdjan Prodanovic on January 1st, 2011, in the ballroom of the Capella Hotel in Singapore.

The reason? As Srdjan Prodanovic explains, "Singapore is the doorway of Asia; we want to be present with our brand to be a part of this growing economy."

Burak Uyan goes on to add, "In fashion, you need to create connections between exotic beauty and its performance." And in the first collection that the designer creates under his own name, the sensuality of the shapes, inspired by the sculptures of Eva Hild, and the precious materials like python, snakeskin and crocodile, are mixed with the concept of all-day comfort. Each shoe, either heeled or flat, has been created to be worn all day long.
